PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Aspiring full stack web developer eager to learn and help contribute to a team environment. In March 2022 I received A certificate of completion from the UC Berkeley Coding Boot Camp and since then I have worked on various personal projects to expand my knowledge of both front-end and back-end technologies and improve my full stack development capabilities. I have become incredibly passionate about web development and coding over the past year and am working everyday towards my goal of becoming a full stack web developer.
